

James Randall Leader Memorial Scholarship Application

The James Randall Leader Memorial Scholarship honors the memory of Jim Leader (1961-1993) whose family has long been committed to the sport of skiing. A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Jim was a long time; Level III Alpine certified instructor and supervisor at Killington Ski Area before the tragic automobile accident that claimed his life. Jim is remembered with joy. He had the grace of a gentleperson and a born athlete. He was comfortable in his skin, which allowed him to help other people feel comfortable with themselves. His sense of humor and handsome big smile drew people to him.

Please note: At the request of the Leader family, the Leader Scholarship is awarded to members from Region 2 (Vermont), with first preference given to employees of the Killington Snowsports School.
